

Whitwell Station Loop

A 2.7 mile circular walk from Whitwell Railway Station on the Robin Hood Line.

This will take you North around the outskirts of the Town Centre, towards links to Whitwell Woods at the Northern edge of the route.

Full route including unsurfaced path through field (may be unsuitable in winter)

Alternative surfaced (shorter 2.2 mile) route

Whitwell Woods

Whitwell Old Hall

Whitwell Library

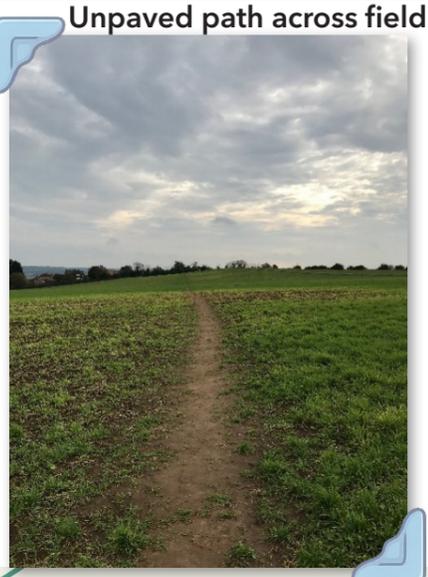

Creswell & Creswell Craggs

Old Hall Lane

Though Whitwell celebrated its "1000th anniversary" in 1989, the village is older – with earliest known written references in Anglo-Saxon charters.

Unpaved path across field

Whitwell Station Loop

Hillside (Steep section)

Community Garden at Whitwell Station

Footway leaving Bolsover Loop section

In and around Whitwell there are Iron Age burial mounds, a Roman villa site, medieval field systems, and both Norman and Saxon churches.

Stepped path (unsuitable for wheel and pushchairs)

Footway onto Bolsover Loop

The village includes Whitwell Old Hall, a medieval manor house, and there's a historic well in the village square which once supplied water to villagers.

